I am a researcher mainly interested in human behaviour, as well as quantitative methods and reproducible science.

About me

I am an Associate Professor and Researcher at EvoCo: Human Behaviour and Evolution Lab, and leader of the CODEC: Cognitive and Behavioural Sciences research group (classification A1), Faculty of Psychology, at Universidad El Bosque in Bogota, Colombia. My research interests mostly lie in mate choice, human vocal communication, and musicality, as well as bioacoustics, psychoacoustics, and hormonal effects on human behaviour. I published among the first articles showing within-individual changes in voice pitch in response to the social status of the listener, and have demonstrated strong effects of voice modulation on listeners in courtship contexts. I am very passionate about quantitative methods and R programming, as a tool to promote reproducibility and open science. Consequently, I am a recommender (editor) for PCI Registered Reports.
